

YAMBA MALAWI

2017 YEAR IN REVIEW

OUR MISSION & VISION

Our mission is to uplift vulnerable children by building businesses and by enabling investment in children's care. We envision a world where strong, resilient communities build brighter futures for children.

PROGRAM SUMMARY

The past year has been one of exceptional growth for Yamba Malawi. In addition to rebranding the organization from goods for good to Yamba Malawi, our team of experts developed a 3 year strategy culminating in the launch of our Childhoods & Livelihoods Program, a holistic intervention focused on childhood wellbeing, sustainable businesses, and financial management coaching. In addition, some highlights include:

- Impacted the lives of over 100,000 vulnerable children and their communities
- Launch of the Chiseka Farming Project, benefiting 150 Households and ~550 children
- Continued support and training for five community-level businesses
- Surpassed milestone of over 2 million eggs sold in local markets
